Dear Sir

Your letter of the 2nd inst was duly received and I have been waiting before replying until I could say something definite.

On account of a business failure in which I was interested I have been out of a position and so have been unable to respond to your request for dues but I have finally secured a position beginning July 1st and if your society can extend the time only a little longer I will be in position to continue my membership which I should very much regret giving up as my interest in the subject is as great as ever.

Thanking you very much for your courtesy I am

Yours sincerely

Mr. James S. Newton,
P. O. Box 2716,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:-

On my return to-day after an absence of several weeks, I found your letter of June 30th, and I am very glad to hear that you still desire to continue your membership in the Society. As regards the dues, please suit your convenience as to how soon they are paid. We will continue to carry your name on the rolls during the current year.

With kind regards, and trusting that your new position is in every way satisfactory, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary.

January 26th, 1916..

Mr. James S. Newton,.

P. O. Box 2716,

Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:-

We have held your name over the year as promised, and can carry it still further if you so desire. You have the privilege of changing your membership to associate membership if you desire to do so, which would have the effect of making the dues five dollars a year instead of fifteen. That, of course, would not effect the dues for the past two years, but if notification could be sent to me promptly would effect the dues for the current year.

With kind regards, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary

The above is only a suggestion, as I did not know whether you knew about associate membership or not.

Dear Mr. Newton:-

I would be very glad to know at your convenience what you desire to do regarding the enclosed account.

With kind regards, and the compliments of the season, I am,

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
